

Philanthropy Impact believes there are critical questions related to tax relief that should be addressed. Philanthropy Impact own positions on tax relief are outlined in the policy paper which can be found on the Philanthropy Impact web site <http://philanthropy-impact.org/report/philanthropy-impact-public-affairs-policy-positions-summary>.

Our approach focuses on:

1. Nine principles that should underline any tax relief policies related to philanthropic giving and social investment.
2. How the existing taxation rules could be simplified to make them more accessible to individuals and their advisers.
3. How can we encourage greater innovation to create new opportunities for individuals and their advisers to engage with philanthropic giving and social investment.
4. Recommendations to improve the existing reliefs.
